WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 31.

THE COOLY WOMEN who till the coffee plantations of Southern India have one pretty habit which I always admired, and it made me regret their generally slovenly made me regret their generally slovely drees. There is in the jungle a flower which, I think, is known in England by the name of the India marigold. It resembles a double stock in shape, and is of a warm yellow and brown color. This is a "samee," or sacred flower, and is as holy as is the lotos to the orthodox Hindoos, while it can protect the wearer from all sorts of evils. The cooly women have long black hair; it is not very clean, but at a short distance is certainly very clean, out at a short distance is certainly very lustrous and picturesque, and when these "samee flowers," with their pale green leaves and fiery buds, are twisted among the tresses as gracefully as women always know how to do such things, whether white or black, the effect becomes striking and artistie, though whether it proves, as alleged, effectual in warding off aches and plagues is open to doubt.—Letter from India.

For biliousness and acidity of the stomach, put one drachm of Turkey rhubarb and half an ounce of carbonate of soda into a jug, then pour into it half a pint of boiling water. Let the mixture stand two hours, then strain. Take half a wineglass full of this mixture night and morning, which contimue till the remedy is effected.

"A little fire is quickly trodden out Which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

Procrastination may rob you of time, but by increased diligence you can make up the lose; but if it rob you of life the loss is ir remediable. If your health is delicate, your appetite fickle, your sleep broken, your mind depressed, your whole being out of certs deaned on it you are seriously dissorts, depend on it you are seriously dis-eased. In all such cases Dr. Pierce's Gold en Medical Discovery" will speedily effect a genuine, radical cure—make a new man of you and save you from the tortures of lin gering disease.

That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily-is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, at
